NYABARONGO, KABILA, ROBUSTA

This washed Robusta comes from the Kabila Washing Station, located in Rwanda's Muhanga district a region in the country's Southern Province known for its subtropical climate and rolling hills, offering ideal conditions for cultivating coffee. Since its founding in 2016, Kabila Washing Station has partnered with 980 local farmers, providing them with vital support for both their well-being and professional growth. Beyond processing coffee, the station extends loans, supplies essential farming materials, and plays an active role in sustaining the farmers' livelihoods and the health of their plantations.
